WonderED Anti-Bullying Policy

Policy and Amendments Approved by BOD 11/1/23

What is Bullying?

WonderED follows the definitions of bullying and cyber-bullying as defined by Florida State Law (Fla. Stat. § 1006.147, 2019):

Florida anti-bullying laws and regulations include the following definitions of bullying, cyberbullying, and harassment:

"Bullying" includes cyberbullying and means systematically and chronically inflicting physical hurt or psychological distress on one or more students and may involve:

1. Teasing;
2. Social exclusion;
3. Threat;
4. Intimidation;
5. Stalking;
6. Physical violence;
7. Theft;
8. Sexual, religious, or racial harassment;
9. Public or private humiliation; or
10. Destruction of property.

"Cyberbullying" means bullying through the use of technology or any electronic communication, which includes, but is not limited to, any transfer of signs, signals, writing, images, sounds, data, or intelligence of any nature transmitted in whole or in part by a wire, radio, electromagnetic system, photoelectronic system, or photooptical system, including, but not limited to, electronic mail, Internet communications, instant messages, or facsimile communications. Cyberbullying includes the creation of a webpage or weblog in which the creator assumes the identity of (cont.)

(cont. from previous page) another person, or the knowing impersonation of another person as the author of posted content or messages, if the creation or impersonation creates any of the conditions enumerated in the definition of bullying. Cyberbullying also includes the distribution by electronic means of a communication to more than one person or the posting of material on an electronic medium that may be accessed by one or more persons, if the distribution or posting creates any of the conditions enumerated in the definition of bullying.

"Harassment" means any threatening, insulting, or dehumanizing gesture, use of data or computer software, or written, verbal, or physical conduct directed against a student or school employee that:

1. Places a student or school employee in reasonable fear of harm to his or her person or damage to his or her property;
2. Has the effect of substantially interfering with a student's educational performance, opportunities, or benefits; or
3. Has the effect of substantially disrupting the orderly operation of a school.

Reporting and Investigation Policies and Procedures of Bullying at WonderED:

WonderED may not request or require a student to provide a password or other related account information in order to gain access to the student's account or profile on a social networking website. If WonderED decides to conduct an investigation after a complaint of cyber-bullying with sufficient evidence, it may require a student to cooperate and share content over the course of the investigation. Appropriate federal and state laws governing student privacy rights will be followed in both the investigation of the incident.

WonderED does not tolerate any instance of bullying on the premises of the school as well as any off-campus school-sponsored activities. Consequences of any instance of bullying from students, parents, or teachers and staff will be met with a "three-strike" consequence system:

(cont. from previous page)

1. Verbal warning and communication with respective parent/guardian and mediation of involved parties using Restorative Practices
2. Written warning to be kept on file and mediation of involved parties
3. Expulsion of student or teacher/staff member

Any investigation will be completed within ten (10) school days after the date the report of the incident of bullying was received. WonderED will assist any and all parties involved with finding and receiving appropriate interventions such as assisting in finding services for school counseling, mental health counseling, school psychologists, and any other available community-based services.

Any reports and investigations of bullying will include:

- 1) The frequency of victimization.
- 2) Student, staff, and family observations of safety at a school.
- 3) Identification of areas of a school where bullying occurs.
- 4) The types of bullying that are common or occurring.
- 5) Bystander intervention or participation.

Any reprisal or retaliation against any person who reports an act of bullying will be subject to the same disciplinary actions, and may also be subject to expulsion.

Any investigation that leads to a finding of a false accusation will result in a meeting between the school director as well as the parties responsible with the false accusations. Mediation between all parties will be conducted and mandatory. Other possible repercussions will be considered and could potentially lead to suspension from the program considering the severity of the accusations.

The completed investigation will be available internally for WonderED staff and available to involved parents and guardians.

Please report any incidents of bullying to the site director; all reports will be handled with confidentiality.

Reports can be made via phone at 260-418-2011 or email your report to bullying@WonderEDk12.com.

Complaints are addressed by Collie Bruner, Senior Manager of Student Success and Jamie Maloney, Chief Executive Officer of WonderED.

Anonymous reporting may be done in writing and mailed to: WonderED C/O ADMINISTRATION, 6012 US Highway 19, New Port Richey, FL, 34652.

WonderED's bullying policy was developed following state guidelines, as well as through discussions with the board of directors and parent/guardians. The policy is consistent with the mission of WonderED and upgraded annually. Please contact the director with any questions or suggestions about the bullying policy or procedures.

This policy is reviewed regularly based on the outcomes and effectiveness of the policy that includes, but is not limited to, factors such as the frequency of victimization; student, staff, and family observations of safety at a school; identification of areas of a school where bullying occurs; the types of bullying utilized; and bystander intervention or participation.

The policy is posted on our website: WonderEDk12.com and is included in the student handbook, and, where applicable, posted where other policies, rules, and standards of conduct are currently posted in the school, and is distributed annually to parents, guardians, students, and school personnel, including new employees when hired.
